

Commonwealth Strategic Partners Co-founder Named President of Pennsylvania State Society of Washington, D.C.

Washington, D.C. – May 11, 2023 – This week, Commonwealth Strategic Partners (CSP) co-founder Keith Pemrick was elected president of the Pennsylvania State Society of Washington, D.C., succeeding Bob Holste. A Pennsylvania native, Pemrick has been a member of the society since 2000 and has served on its board since 2018.

“I am deeply honored to be named president of the PA State Society of Washington, D.C.,” Pemrick said. “For me, the society is an invaluable bridge between my home state and the city that became my second home. I look forward to serving our members, meeting new friends, and celebrating the Keystone State together.”

“I’ve had the pleasure of getting to know, admire, and become friends with Keith for the last five years —and have no doubt he will diligently lead the PA State Society of Washington, D.C.,” said Representative Madeleine Dean (D-PA). “Originally from Gilbertsville, Montgomery County in my district, I am delighted to be able to represent his parents and am thrilled for Keith to take on this role.”

The Pennsylvania State Society of Washington, D.C., is a non-partisan network for elected officials and staff from the Pennsylvania congressional delegation and Pennsylvanians working in the Washington, D.C., area.
